

The Fourth International Seminar on Teaching Chinese as a Second Language

Notice No. 3

I. Purpose of the Seminar

The seminar aims to establish a platform for teachers and scholars in the field of teaching Chinese as a second language where they may exchange their experiences and ideas, as well as to research the current state as well as innovation and development in the teaching of Chinese as a second language. In addition, issues relating to teaching Chinese as a second language, such as international baccalaureates and advanced placement, will be discussed in the seminar. National Taiwan Normal University (NTNU) has long promoted language education and research development. The present seminar may be used to share teaching experiences and research results in the field of language, explore new directions in language research, and develop language education in different areas.
